Contributions to Tim Aalders for U.S. Congress are not tax deductible for federal income tax purposes. Contributions are subject to the limits and prohibitions of the Federal Election Campaign Act. Federal law requires us to use our best efforts to collect and report the name, mailing address, occupation and name of employer of individuals whose contributions exceed $200 in an election cycle. Contributions from corporations, foreign nationals or federal government contractors are prohibited.

The maximum amount an individual or non-multicandidate PAC may contribute is $2,700 per election, for each of the potential primary, primary run-off, general, and general run-off, up to $10,800 personally. The first $2,700 of your contribution will be designated for the primary election. The next $2,700 will be designated for the next election, whether a primary run-off or general election, the next $2,700 will be designated for the next subsequent election, whether general or general run-off, and the final $2,700 for the general run-off. A federal multicandidate PAC may contribute up to $5,000 per election. Contributions for elections that do not occur in 2018 or that Tim Aalders for U.S. Congress does not participate in shall be refunded in full to the contributor. By submitting this contribution, you verify the following statements are true and accurate: This contribution is made from my own funds and will not be reimbursed by any other person or entity; This contribution is made by a U.S. citizen or lawfully admitted permanent U.S. Resident, not a foreign national or federal government contractor; and This contribution is not from the general treasury funds of a corporation, union, or national bank.
